

SPINNING MILLS IN A COLLAPSE

Dreadful Disasters at Barcelona and Belfast, Ireland.

SEVENTY ARE DEAD

Explosion of a Boiler Destroyed the Village of Puente de Vilmar.

ACCIDENT AT BELFAST

Barcelona, Jan. 20.—The explosion of a boiler of a spinning mill, near Manresa last Saturday destroyed half of the village of Puente de Vilmar. The hospital at Manresa is filled with the injured. Sixteen mutilated bodies of working people buried in the debris have been recovered. These include the manager of the spinning mill and his two sisters. Of the persons injured thirty are not expected to recover. The dead include many children. The queen regent has wired her condolences.

Buildings Collapsed
The boiler exploded in the evening, when the mill hands, many of whom were accompanied by their wives and children, were eating supper before commencing their night's work. The buildings of the mill collapsed entirely and the debris was hurled in all directions destroying other buildings and killing and injuring people in the vicinity. Owing to the darkness the work of extricating the victims proceeded with great difficulty. During the work of rescue there were heard the groans of victims whose mutilated limbs were pinned down by the ruins.
A long line of carts and carriages was engaged in conveying the injured to the Manresa hospital, five miles distant.

Sixty Persons Were Killed
This morning the inhabitants went among the ruins seeking the remains of friends and relatives, while the priests in the open air administered the last rites of the church to the dying.
It is estimated that sixty persons were killed and 100 injured.
The search at the scene of the explosion was continued during the day by members of the Red Cross society and officials. Heads, arms and legs separated from the body and unrecognizable blackened corpses were found. The village of Puente de Vilmar is desolated.

MOST REMARKABLE OF MURDER CASES

Trial of Albert Patrick in New York, for Using Hypnotism to Compel a Man to Commit Murder.
New York, Jan. 20.—There began here today the trial of one of the most remarkable murder cases in the history of the United States. Albert Patrick, a lawyer of previous good standing and a man of apparently refined taste and comfortable means, is charged with having induced by means of suggestion or hypnotic influences a young man of comparatively weak mental culture to murder. The motive as supplied by the prosecution was to secure by means of a forged will and check the old man's last fortune. The confession by Chas. Jones Rice, the valet, who claims he was compelled by some strange influence exercised over him by Patrick to administer the poison to Rice.

JOHN J. SULLIVAN WHIPS UNCLE TOM; PUGILIST GOT LOST IN HIS PART

Forgets Himself and Uses the Lash Mercilessly—Helpless Victim Faints Under the Blows.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 20.—An audience which packed the Academy of music in Chelsea from pit to dome Saturday night saw the greatest bit of realism that has ever been produced on the American stage.
John L. Sullivan, ex-champion pugilist, gave the audience the great treat but to one man it proved to be the most painful thing he had ever endured. John L. is starring as Simon Legree in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and made his first appearance in this vicinity last night. Hundreds of the ex-champion's old time friends crossed the river to give him a welcome last night. He knew they were in the house and determined to do himself justice. He simply let himself out, so to speak, and realism got up on its hind legs and danced the Spanish fandango.

THE YEAR'S MINERAL OUTPUT.

Estimates Show United States Exceeds the World.
Washington, Jan. 20.—Estimates of mineral products of the United States indicate that they will exceed in nearly every particular those of any preceding year. In gold, in silver, in iron, in steel, in copper, in coal and in mineral oil the products of the United States in 1901 exceed those of any other country, and in every instance, except possibly copper, surpass her own record in any preceding year.
The London Daily Mail Year Book puts the pig-iron output of 1900 at: United States, 13,789,242 tons; United Kingdom, 8,908,570 tons; Germany, 8,494,852 tons; Russia, 2,821,000 tons; France, 2,639,194 tons. With the 1901 figures for the United States 15,800,000 tons, there can be no question that the United States maintain the lead in iron production.

Venezuelan Rebels Victorious.

Milwaukee, Jan. 20.—Mayor Rose issued a proclamation last evening calling a public meeting to be held at the City hall at 8 o'clock Thursday evening to voice the desire of the people of Milwaukee that Prince Henry of Prussia will visit this city on his coming western tour. At this meeting it is expected that such an urgent and heartfelt invitation will be extended to Prince Henry that he will feel constrained to accept it. Steps will be taken also to provide for the proper presentation of the invitation. The mayor especially urges that all German-American organizations, societies and lodges in the city will send representatives to the meeting.

GOLD IS FOUND IN BADGER STATE

Citizens of Prairie du Chien Are Much Excited Over a Recent Discovery.

Prairie du Chien, Wis., Jan. 20.—Prairie du Chien is excited over the discovery of a gold mine north of this city which was made a short time ago but was not made public until today. L. M. Lasley of New Mexico, an expert in this line, says: "We have found a considerable body of quartz, containing both gold and silver. We think we know pretty well the extent of it and have taken care of it. There will be no wildcat scheme to sell stock and excite the public. The men interested have sufficient means to carry on any development or enterprise that may be necessary in connection with it. The values are gratifying as well as quantity, but very considerably. It is hoped the investigations will prove values more than uniform."
Mr. Lasley declines to divulge the names of the men interested, but it is understood here that they are people well known in financial and business circles. Work will begin at once, and important developments are looked for at any early date.

NAVAL BATTLE IS BEING FOUGHT IN THE HARBOR OF PANAMA TODAY

Three Revolutionary and Three Government Vessels Engaged in a Decisive Contest—U. S. Cruiser Philadelphia Close to Scene of Battle.

Colon, Columbia, Jan. 20.—A naval battle is being fought in Panama harbor today between three revolutionary and three government vessels. The government land forces are throwing up intrenchments and the rebels are trying to land a force. The government ships are the steamer Lantoro of the Chilean line, the Panama canal company's steamer Hyaca and the Pacific Navigation company's steamer Chicuito. The U. S. Steamer Philadelphia is close to the scene of the fighting. Washington, Jan. 20.—Meade's dispatch says: "The insurgent on the steamer Tadilla attacked the Lauri-

MISS CELIA CORCORAN MAKES TWO ATTEMPTS TO COMMIT SUICIDE

Dragged Out of the River Twice by Two Young Men—Jealousy Causes a Determined Effort To End Her Life.

Celia Corcoran, a young woman going under the name of Mrs. Hugh Collins residing on North Bluff street between North First street and Prospect avenue, created considerable excitement yesterday between twelve and one o'clock by making two unsuccessful attempts to commit suicide by throwing herself into the river in the rear of Thoroughgood's factory. Willis Tanberg and Bernard Dugan happened to be passing when she jumped in the first time. They ran down to the river and pulled her out before she succeeded in doing any damage to herself further than getting a good soaking. She was taken to her home and part of her wet clothing removed and before they realized what had happened procured for her she gave the people in the house the slip, and rushed out of the door half-dressed and made a fast sprint for the river. The young men that rescued her the first time were still at the house but before they realized what had happened she was well on her way to the river. They rushed out after her but before they could catch her she had reached the river and took another plunge. The young men, however, were close behind her and dragged her out of the water before she could accomplish her purpose. This time she was taken back home and a close watch kept on her to see that she did not repeat the performance. These two cold baths had a sobering effect on her, so she was willing to stay at home. It is understood that the young woman was jealous because of the attentions paid by Collins to other women and she determined to put an end to her self.

LOVE FEAST FOR HENRY C. PAYNE

Wisconsin Colony to Entertain New Cabinet Minister Tuesday Evening, January 28.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 20.—The complimentary dinner to be given by the members of the Wisconsin delegation to Postmaster General Henry C. Payne has been fully decided upon and will take place at the new Willard hotel, Tuesday night, Jan. 28. The dinner by the delegation will be a love feast solely, nobody being present except the guest of the evening and the senators and representatives from Wisconsin. It will be a night of pleasure, and everything in the way of set speeches will be omitted and the evening given over to reminiscences and forecasts on Wisconsin politics and the delights and displeasures of public life.

PAPERMAKERS WILL ORDER A STRIKE

Demand for Shorter Hours is Likely to Bring a General Strike in the Northwest.

Kaukauna, Wis., Jan. 20.—A general strike was ordered yesterday at a joint meeting of the Appleton, Kaukauna and Neenah lodges of the United Brotherhood of Papermakers and a decision reached to present an ultimatum in the plants in the rest of the Wisconsin paper manufacturing district. This is said, will result in less than three weeks in closing forty mills in the state of Wisconsin, throwing out of employment 3,365 laborers and cutting off over 902 tons a day from the supply of the paper market, unless the demands of the union for shorter hours are granted. Further than this the movement is soon to spread through every paper making district in the Northwest, including Ohio, Indiana and Michigan.

Death of Civil War Veteran.
Lafayette, Ind., Jan. 20.—Capt. Alexander A. Rice, aged 63, one of the most prominent attorneys in the state and a veteran of the Civil war, died Saturday. Rice was assistant adjutant general on the staff of General Joseph Reynolds Wilder's bridge and organized company A. Fifteenth Indiana volunteers.

YALE MAY OFFER TO ROW WISCONSIN

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 20.—Rumors are current here that Harvard is going to send a crew to England this year to the Henley regatta, and wants to leave Yale to make other arrangements. If this should prove true Yale would be likely to offer Wisconsin inducements to come to New London and race. Yale has two pleasant races with the Badgers and has always been eager to meet them again. Justice George Helenbolt of Orfordville was a visitor to this city today.

MINERS' ANNUAL GATHERING.

National Convention of Organization in Session.
Indianapolis, Jan. 20.—An advance of wages will be asked by the coal workers of the country as the result of the annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America, which opened at Tenthon Hall to-day. The miners are influenced partly by the unusually prosperous year the operators have enjoyed. The amount of the increase to be asked has not been decided upon. Many of the miners favor a demand for an advance of 10 per cent. The scale committee will agree upon a figure, and then the matter will be referred to the delegates. At the joint conference between miners and operators which is to follow the convention the scale fixed on by the miners will be considered. Fully 500 delegates are here now and it is expected that the total attendance will reach a thousand.

Mrs. Barnes Is Acquitted.

Jacksonville, Ill., Jan. 20.—The jury in the Barnes murder case, acting on instructions from Judge Thompson, returned a verdict of not guilty and the defendant was discharged. William Ferguson, the negro, had promised to testify for the state and tell the whole story, but when he took the stand he either answered questions evasively or would say nothing.

PROMISES CATHOLIC CARDINAL FOR ZION

Dowie Looks for Prelate of Roman Church to Desert His Faith to Join Him.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—"A cardinal of the Roman Catholic church is trembling on the verge. God grant that he may come out of Rome into Zion. Men wonder at the conversion of the daughter and son of General Booth. What will they say to a Catholic cardinal, a great intellect like unto Newman and a great ecclesiastic like unto Cardinal Manning?" So thundered John Alexander Dowie in the Auditorium yesterday afternoon. He stood squarely before his reading desk, in full view of the vast congregation. He was in his most lionlike mood. "Zion today is even in the palaces of kings," he shouted. "God grant that the cardinal of Rome, seeking the living God, shall find him, not in bread, nor in a crucifix, nor in the babe upon his mother's breast, but the living God who is in us and about us, and whose presence is felt in Zion, the Christian Catholic Church of Zion." Dr. Dowie, prayed long and fervently. In his discourse he often called upon God, the Father. He appeals constantly to law and prays that it may be enforced to curb a licentious press and the manifold forms of greed, which he says, are so prevalent now.

ONE SHORT HUG FOR FIFTY CENTS

An Ohio Church is Up in Arms Over an Extraordinary Plan for Raising Funds.

Toledo, O., Jan. 20.—The Church Hugging society organized last week at Belle Center, O., last week, is raising no end of disturbance there and at other points in the state. It was at first proposed rather as a joke, by some fun-loving girls connected with the little village church, but created so much excitement that the society was formally organized with B. C. Bates as president and Miss Idella Dennison as acting secretary. The schedule approved is as follows: Girls under 15 years old, 15 cents for a hug of two minutes or 10 cents for a short squeeze; under 20 years, 50 cents; from 20 to 25 years, 75 cents; school marm, 60 cents; other men's wives, $1; old maids, 3 cents each and no time limit. The society has forty-three members, and on Thursday evening an up-to-date performance was given along the scheduled lines. Another is set for Feb. 1. The older people of the church are up in arms.

Deputy Game Warden Peter Dr. Fahl was in the city today on his way to Koshkonong.

FILIPINO WOMAN GENERAL TAKEN: SHE ONCE LED 800 MEN TO BATTLE

Aquelda Kathabagan, Who Has Been Fighting the Americans for Over Two Years, a Prisoner.

Manila, Jan. 20.—Sergeant Klealino with eight men, has surprised and captured the famous woman general Aquelda Kathabagan, who for two years has been fighting the Americans as she formerly fought the Spaniards. She boasts that she commanded 800, 300 of whom carried rifles, while 500 were armed with bolos. She has freely disclosed the location of the insurgents and will make overtures to them for surrender. The rebel leaders in Batangas who have strong influence with the peasants, are cunningly proclaiming that a civil war is in progress in the United States. They say that Washington is besieged, and that there has been a battle at Chicago with heavy carnage. The Russian fleet visiting Manila is pictured as destroying the American navy at Cavite. General Dell, with 2,000 men is found.

WHITEHEAD IS NOT A FANATIC

His Record on Gambling and Prohibition is Clear.

IN TWO CAMPAIGNS

Story of His Manly Contest in the Twenty-Second Senatorial District.

AGAINST POOL BILL

The LaFollette men believe that no man who has opposed the gamblers' racing bill can ever be governor of Wisconsin. Therefore, there are less than six members of the last legislature who have records that the horsemen will endorse for all the rest of the campaign. The Milwaukee correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean, says this is one of the arguments brought forward by the organ of LaFollette against the nomination of Senator Whitehead, and it is one of two reasons the organ has given why Whitehead is unfit for the office. The record of the last session of the legislature will show that a number of senators, among others Mr. Bissell, now at the head of the republican league openly opposed the gambling bill, and in vigorous language, taking a great deal more active part in the fight than Whitehead. Bissell says he is proud of his record on the pool or gambling bill, and he believes that every man who fought against its passage would do so again, and that no man who voted as Whitehead and the majority of the legislature voted need fear the consequences.

Record in the Legislature
John M. Whitehead has been sent to the legislature twice from the Twenty-Second district, defeating his democratic opponents by nearly 2 to 1. In the two campaigns he has had to fight out the question of prohibition but once and that was at his first election. The charge was made then, as it has been recently by the friends of LaFollette whom he is opposing, that he is a narrow advocate of prohibition and other laws that are calculated to restrict men in their citizenship; but the result was such a turn down for his opponents in the very strong German-American settlements in Jefferson county that it has never been thought wise, by the Janesville horse track men, who are his principal opponents, to use this argument against him.

Whitehead does not drink, and when he went to Jefferson to meet leaders of his party during the first campaign he was asked to step up to the bar and "have something," which he declined to do. He was immediately surrounded by friends, who told him that what never do; that he ought to take something, at least mineral water, but Whitehead smilingly said "No," there being a little firmness in his voice, and his companions separated, held a conference, and settled it among themselves that it "was all off with poor Whitehead." But Whitehead had greater faith in the integrity of the Germans at Jefferson, and at his next visit when he was told in a leading hotel that he had insulted the people there by refusing to join them in a drink at the bar, he warmed up to the subject and delivered himself of a few remarks to a lobby crowded with leading citizens, many of whom were influential German-Americans.

He told them that he had not come to Jefferson to play the hypocrite; he was not that kind of a man. He had always kept out of the saloons at home, and that was his reputation there. Why should he come to Jefferson, go into the bar, and be a hypocrite? If they wanted such a man as that for the senate, he told them, they would have to look elsewhere.

Indorsed by German-Americans
This story spread over the Twenty-second Senatorial district like wildfire, and it was repeated and retold for weeks, always to the credit of Whitehead. He was elected by a great majority, receiving 7,105 votes, again 4,725 for W. W. Reed, a democrat, and one vote for a Prohibitionist.

BIG GAINS MADE BY THE CHURCHES

OUTDOING THE NATION IN POINT OF GROWTH.

Total Membership of 28,069,837 Out of a Population of 77,000,000—Catholics are in the Lead—Most of the Growth is Noted in the Middle West.

Membership in the various religious denominations of the United States increased in 1901 in greater proportion than did the population of the country. According to statistics given out yesterday by Dr. H. K. Carroll who had charge of the religious department of the census of 1890, the various churches now have a total membership of 28,069,837 communicants out of a population of 77,000,000.

The increase in church membership according to Dr. Carroll, was 730,027, or 2.67 per cent., the greatest growth the churches have known. This is exclusive of transient membership and does not include the foreign fields. The growth of the various denominations ranges from 468,083, for the Roman Catholic church, to 3,039 for the Baptist Church North.

Most of the growth in all denominations has come from the Middle West, while the growth by immigration has not been as marked as in former years. There has been no diminution of faith, as is shown in the Reformed Presbyterian church in the United States and Canada. This sect, without a minister, and with only a few members, continues as before.

Figures Show Growth.

These statistics were given out yesterday, among others:

Religious Body	1901	1890
Roman Catholic	9,153,741	8,214,417
Methodist Episcopal	2,762,391	2,240,354
Regular Baptist, South	1,644,108	1,280,000
Regular Baptist, colored	1,610,801	1,248,989
Methodist Episcopal, South	1,477,180	1,200,000
Disciples of Christ	1,179,341	841,031
Regular Baptist, North	1,036,615	804,450
Presbyterian North	736,215	588,234
Protestant Episcopal	520,785	332,034
African Methodist	498,354	422,725
Congregationalist	534,335	512,771
Lutheran Synodical Conference	500,372	357,153
African Methodist, Zion	387,357	249,789
Lutheran General Council	348,563	324,417
Latter Day Saints	300,000	144,592
Reformed German	218,029	201,018
United Brethren	240,007	224,474
Presbyterian, South	235,081	179,721
Colored Methodist	204,071	125,384
Lutheran General Synod	204,071	187,352

Of the church growth during 1901 Dr. Carroll finds that the Roman Catholic is far in the lead. He says, however, that the priests do not revise their figures every year, so that the increase given represents in a large proportion the diocesan growth of several years. The total membership of 9,153,741 is accepted as accurate, however.

The Protestant Episcopal church made the next largest increase for the year 1901, having a growth of 218 in the number of dioceses and of 31,341 in the total membership. As in former years, most of the new members came from other churches.

Disciples Make Big Gain.

The Disciples of Christ, according to Dr. Carroll's figures, have almost doubled since 1890. Eleven years ago the church ranked eighth in the list, but now is placed sixth, with a membership of 1,179,341. This growth has been entirely in the Middle West and has been greater in the cities than in the country districts.

Dr. Carroll says that there are twenty-two branches of Lutherans in the country, and that while the denominations grew, individual synods of the faith lost heavily. The growth was in the independent and more progressive divisions the Iowa synod alone increasing 21,000 in membership. This denomination, which has always grown largely through immigration, obtained its growth last year chiefly through work by its ministers in the country districts.

As to the Mormons.

Of the other leading sects, Dr. Carroll says none can show growth commensurate with the vast expenditure of time and energy. He made an attempt to gather the figures of the Mormons, and believes that there are over 300,000 of them in Utah and the adjoining states. Not even a close approximate of the membership in the east can be obtained, but Dr. Carroll says the church has over 1,400 missionaries throughout the country, and believes that these converted over 60,000 last year.

While the falling off of the smaller bodies was not appreciable last year, yet the conditions are now such that it will be more marked during the next decade. The Quakers last year lost more than 336 members in their strongholds, yet in Illinois, Indiana, and Iowa they have gained.

THE EXPENSES OF A RURAL MAIL ROUTE

What It Costs to Equip a Carrier to Do His Work—Should Receive Better Pay.

D. W. Rockefeller writes the Milwaukee-Free Press from Beaver Dam under date of Jan. 15, as follows:

The subject of free rural mail delivery has awakened much interest among farmers. By this extended mail service the farmer is brought in daily contact with the pulsation of each day's occurrences. The daily newspaper brings to him the intelligence of each day. The prompt delivery of letters prevents loss in business transaction. The efficiency of the money order system makes a safe and cheap paymaster.

He has become awakened to his relation with the world's movement, of which he forms an integral part. He finds himself in touch with the nation's onward progress and hastily acquiesces in its achievements. Previous to the free mail service there was not developed a channel through which daily intelligence could flow. Now from the head of the government at Washington the postal system reaches its greatest efficiency.

The communication if human thought pulsates and vibrates until the whole nation is made to feel its oneness in thought, feeling and purpose. Supply and demand are alert to give and also to take. The world's needs are quickly revised and as quickly supplied. The rural mail service has made all of this possible. Believing, then, that the United States postal system is made perfect for the national need, may we not consider the efficiency of the service together with its pay commensurate with the time expended in its service adding expenses?

The expense of equipping a rural mail route for the mail delivery requires an investment of from $400 to $500. Two horses must be kept and three are needed. Two separate wagons are necessary—one light for heavy roads, the other covered and constructed conveniently for utility. Two sets of harness are required—one double and one single.

Robes and blankets complete the outfit. The horses must be sound, young and of road quality. These animals have a market value of from $150 to $200 each. The age for usefulness for road horses may be estimated at from five to ten years. A horse is put to work at five years old, and five serviceable years on the road uses him up. He then must be disposed of for a small sum or be used for special work suitable to his age. The tabulated figures which follow show the pay with use of the investment and cost of keeping a serviceable outfit:

Three horses each 15 tons of hay per year, cost $15 per ton	$225.00
15 bushels of oats per day, @ 45c	184.25
Shoeing and repairs	50.00
Paint for rig	20.00
The $500 investment should earn per year the living wages	500.00

Total.....$ 829.25

Salary.....$ 500.00

Deficit.....$ 329.25

In five years he will be obliged to renew his outfit with at least an expense of $400, allowing $100 for the old stock. We believe that the rural carrier should be better paid.

CROWD OF SKATERS ON ROCK RIVER

The Prevailing Fine Weather Has Brought Out the Young Folks on the River.

The weather of late has been ideal for skating and the young people of the city to the number of several hundred gathered yesterday upon the ice with which the surface of the Rock is covered above the dam and participated in this favorite winter sport. All during the greater portion of the day the river was crowded with skaters. The small boy started the sport arriving first upon the scene early in the morning, a pair of skates over his shoulder and a shiny club in his hand, followed later in the day by older boys, accompanied by their "steadys."

The ice in general isn't in the best condition, freezing during the first cold snap it received a couple of light falls of snow upon its surface which under the weather of the past two weeks has alternately thawed and frozen until naught of the snow remains and the surface of the ice now presents an endless succession of little bumps which change the usual pleasant glide of the skater to a disagreeable joggling.

However there are a number of large spaces where the first ice has been harvested and the water having frozen over again presents a skating surface as smooth as any skater could desire. There it was that the majority of the skaters gathered, the big boys gliding back and forth crossed armed with their girls while the small boys, who had not yet achieved the dignity of a steady whisked back and forth across their path in an exciting game of "shinney." If the present weather holds the ranks of the skaters will probably receive many additions in the next few days.

THE WORLD'S DEBT TO THE TEACHER

PLEA FOR A HIGHER AND MORE GENERAL RECOGNITION.

Eloquent and Pertinent Sermon by the Rev. Robert C. Denison at the Congregational Church Yesterday Morning—Interesting Services at Court Street M. E. Church.

At the Sunday morning service at the Congregational church, the pastor, the Rev. Robert C. Denison, in a sermon on "The World's Debt to the Teacher" made an earnest and eloquent appeal for a higher and more general recognition of the service that is being rendered to humanity by the great army of public school teachers of the present day. In the course of his remarks he brought to the attention of the congregation the noble possibilities of the teachers' calling and spoke scathingly of the demagoguery and political intrigue that tended to reduce the high morale of the faculty of our schools by placing incompetent persons in teachers' positions for the subversion of political ends.

He said in part: If the vast majority of persons were asked to give a list of the world's great men, past or present, their minds would instantly be crowded with the names of soldiers and statesmen, great admirals, famous generals, scientists, inventors, explorers and the like and it would be few who would include in the list the names of those who by their teachings had lifted mankind to a higher, nobler plane of thought and action. The world's debt to the teachers of the past could not be estimated; as the highest plane of the old Grecian civilization had been made possible of attainment as the result of broad philosophy and high ideals of its great teachers; so to was the rough and half barbarous condition of early Rome changed and polished under the influence of the same resistless force until it was imbued with a comparative condition of culture and the civilization of the present day owes no greater debt to any man in all history than to the ancient Greek philosopher, Aristotle.

A portion of the world's debt to the teachers of the past was paid by history having awarded to their names a high place upon the scroll of fame but the vast army of teachers of the present day who were exerting a far greater influence for the progress of the world were receiving scant and miserably recognition. The world demanded in the teacher the possession of the noblest attributes of human character, she should have knowledge of exceptional ability to impart knowledge, she should have a consciousness of the high possible effects of her character upon the pupil and be filled with a noble desire to develop the best in every pupil and above all must have the qualities of patience and sympathy—the patience of a Job.

And for all this the world is willing to give but little in return. The highest ideal and purpose of a teacher should not be to cram a pupil's mind with facts and figures, rules and quips taken from the pages of history but the ability, God given, to develop in the scholar the traits of character which Arnold of Rugby, the great English teacher called a "Christian gentleman or gentleman."

The compensation paid to teachers in comparison with that paid for other things was unfair; a man was paid a million dollars for running a steel trust and was enabled to spend a large portion of his time at gambling at Monte Carlo. A Chicago attorney was paid another fabulous wage for organizing another trust and the teacher, patient and persevering, did not receive enough to guarantee independence when years made active service no longer possible. The time should come when our financial system would so adjust itself that the work of the teacher with its attendant qualities of patience and sympathy will be as highly rewarded as the keenness of mind requisite for the organization or management of a trust. And when the schools would be taken out of politics and positions as teachers would not be awarded for political reasons. A condition which was the greatest obstacle to the perfecting of the present school system.

At Court Street Church Presiding Elder McChesney occupied for the first time the pulpit of Court Street M. E. church, yesterday morning. The house was well filled and the elder delivered a very excellent sermon on the doctrines of the church. He emphasized the fact, that is too frequently overlooked by Methodist ministers, that the children of the church should be taken in and cared for by the church, before they are permitted to wander away and then brought back, if ever, by the way of repentance.

In the evening the pastor delivered a very strong and instructive sermon on crowned and uncrowned king, taking as a topic John the Baptist. Beholded. John was the highest type of manhood and of the few great teachers. Fearless and possessed of a great truth his message commanded attention. He lived to see his work accomplished and will continue to live through all ages. Herod, his murderer, is a type of humanity, not extinct. Fear made him a coward and a guilty conscience found for him a hell on earth.

Mr. Tippet believes in a Little Heaven and Hell here and does not hesitate to proclaim it. He is an earnest, able speaker and holds an audience as if by magic. The church is fortunate in having secured his services.

I'll brave the storms of Chilkoot Pass, I'll cross the plains of frozen glass, I'll leave my wife and cross the sea, Rather than be without Rocky Mountain Tea.

OUR ROOMS CLEANED BY COMPRESSED AIR

Mr. Frank L. Matchette, proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, Milwaukee, one of the "up-to-date" hotel men of the northwest is out with a new red line on his envelopes that reads like the caption of this item. As "electric lights," "steam heat," "passenger elevator," "running water" and other hotel advertising phrases along this line have become much worn, since every first-class hotel is presumed to have these things, this new "red line" is welcome, and will relieve the monotony of the older stock phrases. "Our Rooms Cleaned With Compressed Air" is certainly a new one, and as attractive as it is new.

All the latest scientific research and discovery has developed the fact that all kinds of disease is carried and communicated by "germs," and these germs are developed by their environment, all sorts of filth and uncleanness serving as soil in germs are propagated and developed. Therefore, cleanliness is not only next to godliness, but is the one great factor in the maintenance of health. Take, for instance, the average woman, from her own cleanly home, and usher her into a hotel room. She sniffs the air as a hound following prey, and no matter how fine the hotel, how clean the hotel-keeper and his housekeeper may think the hotel is, she is like to exclaim: "There is a smell in this room," or "I can smell dust here." Her olfactory sense is keener than her husband's or that of the hotel people, not having become accustomed to all sorts of odors and how quick she is in a perfectly odorless room to exclaim: "How nice and sweet this room is!" The dust brush should be banished, the floors and woodwork not soaked with greasy soap and water, which leaves an ineradicable smell and a breeding ground for germs and vermin, and the new principle of compressed air should be used, as it draws from every corner and crevice; from every mesh of fabric the last and least particle of dust and dirt.

FIRE BUGS FINALLY GET IN THEIR WORK

A. F. Kreuger's Slaughter House
Burned to the Ground—Building Covered by Insurance.

Last night fire bugs finally succeeded in making a successful blaze out of A. F. Kreuger's slaughter house located just south of the tracks of the Mineral Point division of the St. Paul railroad near the city stone crushing plant. This is the second attempt on the building, the other having occurred New Year's night but was extinguished before any great damage was done.

Last night an alarm telephoned in to the West Side engine house about five o'clock, saying there was a big fire on Pleasant street. Box 56 was pulled and the department made a fast run for the scene of the conflagration. The whole western sky was illuminated by the fire and it looked to the firemen going up Milwaukee street as if one of the big tobacco warehouses beyond the Five Points was burning.

When the top of the hill on Pleasant street was reached the location of the fire was discovered and the pace of the teams slackened. When the patrol arrived at the slaughter house there was nothing left standing but the frame work which was burning fiercely.

The fire was three-quarters of a mile beyond the last hydrant and although Driver Scott laid all the hose in his wagon it did not begin to reach the scene of the blaze. Chief Spencer thinking something might be saved at the building, had a second alarm sent in which called the East Side hose team.

When the chief reached the fire he saw they could do no good so no more hose was laid. The building is covered by insurance. Several hogs confined in a yard adjoining the burning building had a close call.

They happened to be on the windward side of the building so that the fire was blown away from them and all would have been burned up, and as it was one had his tail burned off.

SADLER WILL TAKE CARE OF HIS FOLKS

Frank Sadler, was before the municipal court this morning on the charge of deserting his family and leaving them in a destitute condition. He pleaded guilty to the information filed against him by District Attorney Jackson but told the court that he had determined to reform and lead a different life.

He had given up drinking whiskey and had signed the Francis Murphy League pledge, and would go to work at once and take care of his family. Judge Fiffeld was inclined to give him another chance to reform and take care of his family, so suspended sentence with the understanding that the first time he did not live up to his promises he would be arrested and sentenced.

With a term in state prison staring him in the face Sadler ought to be able to keep the pledge.

Entertainment at County House.

The inmates of the county house are indebted to Mrs. J. B. Day and six of the members of her class in elocution for a very pleasant entertainment on Saturday evening. The affair took place at the county house chapel and consisted of declamations and readings by the following scholars: Miss Floy Scofield, Master Archie Reid, Miss Frances Ingle, Master Floyd Porter, Miss Flora Rider, Miss Fannie Rumrill. A musical program was also rendered by the three Misses Schumacher who reside in the neighborhood of the poor farm. Mrs. Day reports that it was the first literary program that had ever been given for the diversion of the inmates, and that they, judging from the pleased expressions on their countenances, and stormy applause, enjoyed it highly, as also did her scholars.

Two or three office holders and a few supporters of Governor LaFollette are busy circulating petitions today, endorsing the administration, and pledging continued support. This is a move to stem the tide of popular favor expressed for Senator Whitehead, and is expected to prove a boomerang in the Senator's home town. Janesville people regard it as an honor to recognize Senator Whitehead's popularity and but few of them are in sympathy with the governor's policy.

The Whitehead lists are being liberally signed, both here, and throughout the state and the movement to checkmate public sentiment, will not be popular.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played-out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a silmy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured, the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlan, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aspic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal, and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Hoover, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Telephone Pole Wrecked

Beloit, Wis., Jan. 20.—This morning at about eight o'clock a forty-five foot telephone pole at the corner of Pleasant street and Public avenue belonging to the Beloit Independent Telephone company, broke off about half way up and came down with the three cross arms and two 100 pair cables. A lady who was riding by on her wheel just escaped being hit by the broken pole. All traffic was blocked for a time because of the mass of wire and cable on the street.

The breakage was due to the pole not being properly guyed to hold the immense strain put upon it.

Look for Important Disclosures.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 20.—Predictions are freely made here by Jim Howard's friends that the details of the conspiracy to kill William Goebel will soon be entirely disclosed and that Howard himself will be entirely cleared from all suspicion. It is said that J. B. Mathews, the first witness for the defense in the present trial, will be relied upon to make the disclosures. The defense will try to prove that Yontay was the real slayer of Goebel.

MARY ANN BULLOCK HAS PASSED AWAY

Died at the Home of Her Son, on Terrace Street, Saturday Evening Aged 89 Years.

Died, at the home of her son, Mr. D. N. Hatfield, 14 Terrace street, on Saturday evening, at 7:30, Mrs. Mary Ann Bullock, at the advanced age of 89 years and five months. Mrs. Bullock was born in Ashtabula county, Ohio. Deceased was better known to her neighbors and friends as "Grandmother Hatfield." The last three years of her life, have been spent in her sister's home, where everything that loving hearts and kind hands could do, was done to make her declining years happy. The first year of her residence with her son, she suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, from which she never fully recovered, but was very cheerful and patient throughout it all, so endearing herself to everyone by her patient and uncomplaining ways. The evening before she died, she recognized her son and his wife, calling each by their names, as only a loving mother can. A brief funeral service was held at the home Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 after which Mr. Hatfield left with the remains on the 3 o'clock train for Bristolville, O., her former home.

HAS A GOOD WORD FOR WHITEHEAD

Former Governor Scofield Gaining Strength and Taking an Interest in Politics.

Oconto, Wis., Jan. 20.—Ex-Governor Scofield is not gaining strength very fast after his recent attack of pneumonia. He is eager to get out, and this morning for the first time walked beyond the limits of his own front yard. The ex-governor's appearance shows the hold the disease had upon him. Indeed, as he says, he was for a time near the border of the hereafter. The scores of letters and telephone messages received at the Scofield home during the illness were particularly gratifying to Mr. Scofield coming as they did from all classes of people, regardless of political affiliations.

Naturally, during the four weeks since the beginning of Mr. Scofield's illness, he has not been in a condition to follow closely the political developments in Wisconsin. The recent movement in favor of Senator Whitehead, however, meets with his hearty approval.

"I have been intimately associated with Mr. Whitehead," said the ex-governor, "particularly in relation to tax commission affairs, and I know him to be sound on tax principles. He will certainly be absolutely just to all corporate and other interests should he have an opportunity to put his views into operation."

A WOMAN'S RISK

As a trapeze performer is greater than a man's. She must have a man's courage and a man's muscle to succeed. But she must also work under conditions of which a man knows nothing. Many an accident to women acrobats must be attributed to the sudden weakness to which all women are subject at certain times.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription heals the womanly diseases which cause weakness. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"With pleasure I write to-day in praise of Dr. Pierce and his medicines," says Mrs. Mary Conway, of Appleton, Lawrence Co., Tenn. "Was troubled with female disease, the back of my head hurt me so I could not lie in bed and I would have to sit up, and then I would have such pains from my waist down I could scarcely raise up. My feet and hands would feel almost like ice. Since taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I can sleep well all night. Could hardly drag around before I took your medicine, and now can do my housework and help my husband in the field. Words cannot express the thanks I owe to Dr. Pierce."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PANAMA CANAL ROUTE FAVORED

Isthmian Commission Recommends the Payment of $40,000,000.

MORGAN OPPOSES THE PLAN.

Suggests That Great Difficulties Stand in the Way of the United States Acquiring Title and Right of Way Over the Isthmus.

Washington, Jan. 20.—The supplemental report of the Isthmian Canal Commission, approved the Panama canal route as "the most feasible and practical route connecting the two oceans."

The report gives in detail what the Panama Company proposes to turn over to this government if its proposition is accepted.

There is a proviso which stipulates that the proposition must be accepted by March, 1903. This makes it imperative that the present Congress shall deal with the subject if the Panama route is to be seriously considered.

Forty million dollars, even, is the sum agreed upon.

Two long cablegrams were sent to the Panama officials requiring them to make plain the ambiguous terms used in the proposition submitted, and these were replied to in a manner satisfactory to the commission.

The commission was also officially assured that the sale of the property to the United States will be accepted as a settlement of the question in the French courts.

In connection with the Panama railroad the report will show that this road owns almost all of the ground upon which the town of Colon is built; that the company leases the ground upon long-term leases, and derives a handsome revenue from these ground rents; that it possesses valuable piers and wharves at each terminus of the road; a half-interest in several of the islands just off the coast—all of which, under the terms of the proposed sale, pass to the United States. The railroad has a small bonded debt, which, the report says, can be easily paid off in a few years out of the large earnings of the property.

The report states that under that maximum computations of its engineers the cost of the Panama canal will be $5,000,000 less than the Nicaragua route.

"There are, I believe, almost insuperable difficulties in the way of the construction of the Panama canal by this government, and before such obstacles could be overcome, or while they are getting in shape for settlement, the French Company would," M. Lampre stated, "go with the work and when finally found that the United States could not acquire the title and right of way, work would have progressed to such a point in the Panama canal that the French people might again take up the canal, and push it to completion, while the American people would be standing around with their fingers in their mouths, wondering what had happened to them."

Adjourned to Meet in Chicago. San Francisco, Jan. 20.—Chicago was selected as headquarters and as the place of next meeting by the convention of the United Brotherhood of Railway Employees, which adjourned Sunday after sessions lasting all week. One of the most important matters that came before the body was the adoption of an insurance plan. The convention provided for life insurance on the annuity basis, for straight life insurance and insurance of those who become permanently disabled by accident or old age. George Estes of Roseburg, Oregon, was elected president.

Honor Sir Robert Hart. Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 20.—The empress dowager and the Chinese government have at last given evidence that they appreciate the efforts of Sir Robert Hart, Inspector general of the Chinese imperial maritime customs, toward peace during the "boxer" outbreak of 1900. A Chinese decree, dated December 11, appoints him to the brevet rank of the junior guardian of the heir apparent, specifying that this honor is conferred in recognition of valuable assistance and advice given by him during the peace negotiations.

PROFESSOR ATTACKS BIBLE.

Chicago Theologian Declares Disbelief in Its Infallibility.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Charles W. Pearson of Northwestern university, who has declared his disbelief in the infallibility of the Bible, in all probability will be brought before the university board of trustees for trial, and, according to the opinion of prominent Methodists, he may be expelled from the church.

The attack has created consternation among Methodists. Northwestern university has been dumfounded, and yesterday the trustees spoke feelingly of the matter. The Rev. J. P. Brushingham, one of the trustees, intimated that Dr. Pearson would come before the board for trial, and Dr. Charles J. Little, president of Garrett Biblical institute, branded Dr. Pearson as a "heretic, anarchist, and traitor." Dr. Pearson announced yesterday that his views had stirred up just the sort of storm he had looked for.

STRIKE COST $200,000.

Statement of Shaffer Regarding the Amalgamated Association.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 20.—"The Amalgamated association went into the last strike with the United States Steel corporation with $72,000 in the treasury and spent $200,000 in the fight. It will go into the next convention with $100,000 in the treasury," said President T. J. Shaffer of that organization in addressing a mass meeting of men Sunday. "The Amalgamated association did not lose the strike," said Shaffer, "both lost features in the strike which they will not lose again in many years."

Ben I. Davis, business manager of the Amalgamated Journal, said that the association is in better condition numerically and financially than it was before the strike was declared.
